The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Law passed in April provided workers who lost jobs to COVID-19 with an additional $600 a week through the end of July. Lawmakers are currently debating whether to extend these benefits or whether to let them expire. Which of the following comes closer to your point of view?	I am more concerned that extending the additional $600 a week in unemployment benefits will be a disincentive to people returning to work because some people may get more money in benefits than they would at their old job.	46
